[redacted]

At 9:25 PM, April 22, 1966, the FBI in Chicago advised that they had received a telephone call from the Military Police of Chicago, who had received a long-distance call from the 79th Military Police [redacted] Milwaukee, Wisconsin, concerning a [redacted] stated that his Department had received a call from a man who identified himself as [redacted] (phonetic). Stating he was with the Milwaukee FBI. He alleged that one [redacted] Negro male, wearing navy shoes and a red sweater, and a blue hooded jacket, was traveling from Dayton, Ohio, via train to the Chicago area. He further stated that [redacted] had been discharged from the Navy in January, 1966, and had made a threat against the life of the Secretary of the Navy. He had indicated that he would take his grievance to the President. [redacted] advised the MP's that if apprehended, [redacted] should be taken to the psychiatric ward at the Great Lakes Naval Hospital in Great Lakes, Illinois. [redacted] is not affiliated with the FBI in Milwaukee, nor is he associated with the United States Attorney's Office in this area.

According to the FBI in Chicago, [redacted] is believed identical with a chronic AWOL seaman who received a navy discharge. This seaman is identified as a Negro male, approximately 20 years of age, 5'10" in height, weighing 160 pounds, and a resident of the west side of Chicago.
